

KEY ACTIVITIES

activities you need to do to make your business model work.

should focus on fulfilling its value proposition, reaching customer segments and maintaining customer relationships, and generating revenue.

Three Categories of Key Activities

- Production: designing, manufacturing and delivering a product in significant quantities and/ or of superior quality.
- Problem-solving: finding new solutions to individual problems faced by customers.
- Platform/ network: Creating and maintaining platforms. For example, Microsoft provides a reliable operating system to support third-party software products.

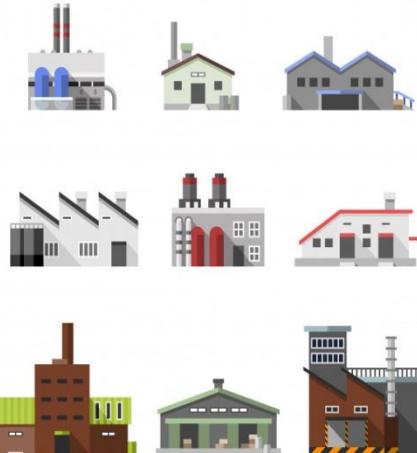

KEY RESOURCES

This is where you list down which key resources or the main inputs you need to carry out your key activities in order to create your value proposition.

Four Types of Key Resources

- Human (employees)
- Financial (cash, lines of credit, etc.)
- Intellectual (brand, patents, IP, copyright)
- Physical (equipment, inventory, buildings)

KEY PARTNERS

the external companies or suppliers that will help you carry out your key activities. These partnerships are forged in order to reduce risks and acquire resources.

Types of partnerships

- Strategic alliance: partnership between non-competitors
- Coopetition: strategic partnership between competitors
- Joint ventures: partners developing a new business
- Buyer-supplier relationships: ensure reliable supplies

COST

COST STRUCTURE

focus on evaluating the cost of creating and delivering your value propositions, creating revenue streams, and maintaining customer relationships.

cost-driven

(focuses on minimizing costs whenever possible)

value-driven

(focuses on providing maximum value to the customer).
